PhD. Gorka Labaka is postdoctoral researcher at the IXA research group. He received his PhD in Computer Science from the University of the Basque Country in 2010 and has been postdoctoral researcher at the UPV/EHU since then. He has published over 25 international refereed articles and conference papers in Machine Translation, focusing on highly inflected languages and hybridization techniques. He has participated in 2 European projects (NewsReader and QTLeap) and several national (OpenMT, OpenMT-2, etc.) and regional (Quales, Modela, etc.) research projects. Since 2012, he has been teaching Machine Translation courses at the HAP/LAP and EMLCT master degrees.
